

Green Township Post 10380 Veterans of Foreign Wars April 2025

Welcome from Commander Mike Donnelly

Denise (Mike's wife and editor) here ... I apologize for the absence of the newsletter these past months. I had to attend to a few priority home items that had taken a backseat while I put together the 35th Anniversary newsletter, and then the holidays and winter came. But I'm back on task and thank you for your patience and understanding. Now, here's Mike ...

I want to thank Denise for working hard on this issue. Sadly, over the past few months, we have lost several members who will be remembered in the next newsletter. May they rest in peace.

As you read on, you'll see Post 10380 has been busy as usual. Highlighted in this issue, you will find the winners of the 2024—2025 Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen competitions. We are grateful to Joe Augustine for coordinating the competitions and judges again this year. This is a monumental amount of work and we thank you! You will also see the winners of the Green Township Law Enforcement and the Fire/EMS awards for their dedicated service, and the VFW Naval Sea Cadet Corps Award. Congrats to all!

Mark your calendars

As of this year the Memorial Day Parade in Cheviot is under the new leadership of Chairman Ryan Blankenship and his committee. Please note the shortened route; see pages 4-5 for full information and details. Thank you, Ryan, for accepting this position.

On page 9, you will see a few pics of the February meeting where we welcomed 4th Grade Girl Scout Troop 4005 from Springmeyer Elementary. The average attendance at meetings is 45-55 and I want to say how wonderful it is to continue to have so many members at our meetings. We have welcomed five new members since September 2024. Thank you all for your active interest in our Post and your attendance at the meetings. You all are the reason Post 10380 is great!

You all know how much I like to talk about claims, so future newsletters will highlight information about VA Benefits and assistance to help Veterans better understand their benefits. We have a great network of individuals to help navigate the benefits maze. On page 12 you will find information about the HISA Grant. Please let me know if you have a topic you would like me to address.

Thanks again for your patience and support. Have a blessed and happy Easter.

Mike

Green Township VFW Post 10380 2025 Memorial Day Parade Invitation

“A hero is someone who has given his or her life to something bigger than oneself”

We are in our 75th year and we would like for YOU to be in the parade. The VFW Post 10380 / Cheviot Memorial Day Parade is scheduled for May 26, 2025 at 11:00 am. The parade will start at Bridgetown Cemetery on Bridgetown Road and proceed north on Bridgetown to Cheviot School and onto Harrison Ave. The parade continues on Harrison to its termination at Harrison and Glenmore Ave at the Pioneer Cemetery. This is a shorter route on flat ground than the parade routes in the past. A rifle salute and TAPS will be performed at both cemeteries by Green Twp VFW Post 10380.

The parade this year and going forward is being managed by Green Township VFW Post 10380 under the command of Mike Donnelly and the City of Cheviot under Mayor Sam Keller. All are invited to participate in the spirit of remembering and honoring those who made the ultimate sacrifice to win and preserve our freedoms. We want to make this about all who wore the uniform and gave their lives in service to our country. Political entities will be limited except for the Cheviot government officials who are providing foundational support. Military affiliated organizations are highly encouraged. Groups such as Scouts, Car Clubs, kids on bicycles are invited. If you can fly a flag and remember the fallen, you are invited.

On this day and every day, we remember those who sacrificed so we could live in freedom. This Memorial Day, we're thankful for those who gave their lives while serving. And we're thinking of those who have lost someone they love. Thank you for your sacrifice.

Respectfully,
Memorial Day Parade Committee

“Is America Today Our Fathers’ Vision?”

by Megan Eisenmann

New world, Land of the Free, Land of opportunities, Melting pot, America. America is known for many different things but has ultimately always stayed true to its founders. America is a country that changed the world forever. The revolution took place in order to maintain freedom and liberty. The forefathers carefully constructed this government built upon many different ideas and systems to create one completely individual system that has never before been seen. While due to societal norms the forefathers first attempt at freedom looked different than freedom today. It was still a huge culture shift that stood as a new individual way of looking at freedom. In America, while many people were able to receive freedom, there were still many people like African Americans and women that did not have the full freedoms that they have today. America today brings to action the ideas and vision our forefathers had, in the way in which America presents itself and in the successful structure and system of which America runs.

America today stays true to the forefathers by maintaining the name and purpose in which it was intended. In the forefathers’ time America stood as the first glance of what true freedom and liberty could develop to be. This glimpse of what freedom could be led to many people all over the world to venture to this new world of opportunities and freedom. Although the forefathers did not offer absolutely true freedom for everyone, they made it possible for future generations to expand freedoms to all. America gave people the opportunity to receive and fight for freedom. While doing this the American culture was formed by the plethora of diversity that entered into this new country. This is why America is known as the melting pot. America today still serves as an embodiment of liberty and freedom that many people from all over the world look to for refuge.

The forefathers constructed an intricate and well designed backbone of ideas and systems of which the great nation would run on. James Maddison, John Jay, and Alexander Hamilton and others all came together to establish the long lasting Constitution. This Constitution gives a clear and concise outline on how America will run.

The Constitution ensures that the government is running effectively and correctly while maintaining the ideas that we fought for. Their success with this document is still in use and in action in every part of the country today. Elections, how a bill becomes a law, the branches of government and their powers are all based upon the Constitution that the forefathers fathers established.

James Maddison created the Bill of Rights in order to make sure that the American citizens rights would never again be taken advantage of by the government. His great success and plan for the Bill of Rights has instituted successful outlines on what the government can and cannot do. The Bill of Rights has always and continues to this day to protect the rights of every single American Citizen, your ability to freely exercise your religion, ability to express your opinion, and the ability to protect yourself. People may argue that since there have been changes in these historical and influential documents that we have shifted out of the vision that the forefathers had. This way of thinking is completely off. In fact it could not be more wrong. In the Constitution the ability to change and add to these documents is freely given and even gives the people a way to do just that. The changes to these documents are to stay current for the time period and inventions that have occurred do not shift the vision the forefathers had in mind but actually expresses it more. The whole vision of the forefathers was to create a land based on freedom and liberty. Through the expanding of freedoms to all people we are acting inline with what the forefathers intended. A great example of this is expanding freedoms for people across the US through the Amendment process. The 19th Amendment which gave women the right to vote which was a freedom that they did not possess in the forefathers’ time. However this was brought into action due to the amendment process that the forefathers put into place in the Constitution. The 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments expanded freedoms to all races. It abolished slavery, created equal rights, and gave all races the right to vote. We are using the systems the forefathers put in place in order to better the country as a whole while times change just as the forefathers did. America today puts into action and continually runs on the outline and ideas that the forefathers put forth in creating the new world.

"My Voice in America's Democracy"

By Alexandra Bartlow

What is a Democracy? Is it a high school club, or is it a restaurant? No, it is a system of fairness and freedom where the citizens vote for or against propositions, but I bet you didn't think a seventh grader could impact it. "My Voice in America's Democracy" includes How I can impact America's Democracy, and the importance of voting, How history will help us in the future, and lastly, My involvement in the community and how it prepares us for voting.

In the past, I have voted on things such as what games to do in class, what class books we should read, and what needs improving in the school. But what about in a couple years or so?

When I'm eighteen I'll be able to vote if registered. So that means I need to know the importance of voting. The importance of voting is that every vote counts, and you should take part in your country's freedom and pride. After all, you should be glad that you have the freedom to choose. Do you think that brave Americans risked their lives for nothing but an opinion? No, it is more than that.

A lot of kids dread going to history class. They say it's pointless to learn about people long ago and dead, or is it? We must learn history because what if one of us becomes state senator? It would be terrorizing if they suddenly declared to enforce a lower pay raise for people of color, or denied services to them matter of fact. The point of learning history is to not repeat our past mistakes. History can also help us to solve problems, such as ones that are presented to us that are similar to the ones in the past that we overcame.

Involvement in the community can help children like me prepare for when the time comes for us to vote by getting an understanding on issues. It can also give you a familiarity on what you believe is a morally right or wrong issue. This is also another way to learn the importance of voting. So even though you could be nine or ninety, your voice in our democracy counts and will always have matter and importance. How will you present your voice in America's Democracy?

Jason teaches AP United States History and Government in a “hands-on” approach. This is a meaningful way for students to learn about history by directly speaking with Veterans and wives. We appreciate this program and look forward to participating each year. This year thirty-six Veterans participated; twenty-two were from Post 10380. Thank you Mr. Berling and Seton High School for the this unique teaching opportunity. Shared here are photos of Post 10380 members who had the privilege of participating.

As the oldest branch of the U.S. Military, the Army protects the security of the United States and its resources.

The Navy defends the right to travel and trade freely on the world's oceans and protects national interests overseas.

The Space Force organizes, trains, and equips space forces in order to protect U.S. and allied interests in space and to provide space capabilities to the joint force.

Comprised of the Army National Guard and Air National Guard, the National Guard is a versatile force, supporting combat missions, domestic emergencies, humanitarian efforts, homeland security operations, and more.

The Marine Corps is often first on the ground in combat situations.

The U. S. Air Force protects American interests at home and abroad with a focus on air power.

The Coast Guard protects America's waterways and deploys with the Navy during wartime.
